HUA HIN VILLA PROJECT WINS PRESTIGIOUS PROPERTY AWARD

'Baan Ing Phu' wins 'Best Condo Development Award' and obtains Top Three ranking for 'Best Villa Project' in Hua Hin

During the Awards ceremony for this year's prestigious 'Thailand Property Awards', held in Bangkok on 7 November, 'Baan Ing Phu' won two important accolades for its unique, upscale residential project.

It won the '2009 Best Condo Development Award' and was rated among the Top Three villa projects for 2009 in Hua Hin, a beautiful seaside resort town, only a two-hour drive from Bangkok.

The Thailand Property Awards select and celebrate Thailand's finest achievements in real estate, construction, architectural and interior design and related industry services. These awards are widely recognised as the industry's most prestigious recognition.

Baan Ing Phu is a high-end residential project, offering a wide range of villas and condominiums in a tranquil environment with spectacular mountain views. Adjacent to a championship golf course and offering its own pool, spa and gym facilities, Baan Ing Phu will shortly add a restaurant and tennis court to its offerings. Baan Ing Phu is an initiative of Dutch entrepreneur Mr Peter Ton, who started this development 3 years ago. 'We are delighted with these Awards, especially since we were selected by a jury of our peers' says Mr Ton. 'It will help motivate our entire team to move ahead, with undiminished focus on innovative design, quality construction and unequalled customer service.'
